Study in GANGSEO University

"Located in the vibrant city of Seoul, Gangseo University offers a high-quality, research-driven curriculum, specialized education services for international students, and affordable tuition, all within easy reach of the city's cultural hotspots."

Advantage 1. Location: Seoul

Gangseo University is located in Gangseo, Seoul, which is close to Gimpo Airport and has convenient transportation to access Seoul's cultural attractions, including Hongdae, Myeongdong, and Gangnam, in a short period of time. Students can taste various cultural experiences and cutting-edge urban environments that Seoul has to offer through Gangseo University.

Advantage 2. Specialized education service for foreign students

In Gangseo University, many foreign students of various nationalities are studying English and Korean courses in graduate and undergraduate programs. Specifically, Gangseo University operates a dedicated department for foreigners in the English course. Through this course, English-speaking students can experience a differentiated education.

Advantage 3. High-quality curriculum

Gangseo University provides competitive curriculum through professors with excellent research skills and high academic standards. Professors at Gangseo University have completed doctoral programs at domestic and international outstanding universities, and they guide graduates to develop into leaders with confidence as professionals in the field through knowledge transfer in their fields.

Advantage 4. Reasonable tuition fee

Gangseo University, despite being in Seoul, has a reasonable tuition system. With a high level of educational quality and a reasonable tuition system, students can study more freely, enjoying campus life and Seoul's cultural environment.

Specialized Education System

+ Support organization solely for international students

The Institute for International Education and Exchange supports foreign students with issues such as immigration, course registration, and life complaints, helping them adjust to school and Korean life.

+ International leader club : Peer Support

Outstanding foreign students are selected as leaders to help students perform special activities and student activities. Through this process, students can have the experience of becoming leaders on their own.

+ The advisor professor system

The advisor professor is designated for each 30 to 50 students. If students have difficulties in studying abroad, they can always visit their advisor professor for consultation and receive help with their learning and living.

+ Specialized department for foreign students

Gangseo University operates a dedicated department for foreign students. This course provides a specialized educational environment that considers the level of foreign students to enhance understanding of educational content and to provide an optimized educational curriculum that considers the foreign educational environment.
